Erica N. Dobkowski is an associate attorney with Mallor Grodner LLP practicing estate planning and business law.

Erica started with Mallor Grodner as a law clerk in October 2016. She made her transition to associate upon her admission to the Indiana Bar in the fall of 2017. Prior to joining the firm, Erica gained valuable experience as a legal extern with prosecutorial offices in Indiana and in Florida, as a judicial clerk in Florida, and at a personal injury firm in Florida. Originally from the Tampa Bay area, Erica moved to Indiana to attend the Maurer School of Law and quickly decided to make Bloomington her home.

Erica received her undergraduate degree in political science with a minor concentration in business from the University of South Florida in 2014. She then went on to earn her law degree from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law in May 2017. While working toward her law degree, Erica volunteered with the Protective Order Project, served as Editor of the Indiana Law Journal, and participated in both internal and external trial advocacy competitions. As a result of her participation on the trial team and her passion for advocacy, Erica was inducted into The Order of Barristers with her graduating class in 2017.

In her spare time, Erica enjoys working out at a local Crossfit gym and spending time outdoors with her dog, Java.
